Impressive funeral services for John Roy Bowman were held Friday afternoon from the Second Ward meeting house, with Bishop O. Buchanan, of the second ward in charge. Mr. Bowman, was a well known citizen of Blackfoot and was a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bowman. He passed away Tuesday morning after a few days' illness of pneumonia.

The spacious meeting house was filled to capacity by friends and relatives who came to pay their respects to the memory of this popular young man. By count 700 people were crowded into the meeting house, and over a hundred were unable to gain admittance.

There was a profusion of floral wreaths, bouquets and sprays, which completely banked the beautiful casket, testifying to the high esteem in which Mr. Bowman was held by the people of this community.

The services opened with a duet, "Beyond Today," by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Manwaring, following which the invocation was asked by Harvey Allen. Ronald W. Bliton rendered a violin solo, "Nocturno."

There were six speakers, all testifying to the exemplary life of the deceased and speaking words of comfort to the mourners. In order of their appearance they were Bishop W. E. Bills, Bishop P. J. Williams and D. J. Neack, followed by a chorus from the Second Ward offering, "Dry Those Tears." The remaining speakers were J. E. Williams, Nofear Davis and Bishop O. Buchanan, all of whom spoke in glowing terms of the life, activity and interests of the young man whose untimely passing was mourned by all.

G. Byron Done sang "Going Home" and the benediction was by Bishop F. T. Halverson.

A long cortege followed the remains which were in charge of the Brown-Eldredge Mortuary, to their final resting place at Grove City cemetery where the grave was dedicated by Ray J. Eskelson. Five cars were required to transport the floral offerings to the cemetery.

Pall bearers were P. M. Rasmasen, S. G. McGee, Wayne Pixton, Torvil Buttoane, Gardner Barclay and J. Alvin Ray.
